Galena homicide suspect arrested overnight in Missouri

JASPER COUNTY, MO – The Kansas Bureau of Investigation (KBI), the Galena Police Department, and the Cherokee County Sheriff’s Office announced the suspect believed responsible for a recent Galena homicide was arrested overnight in Missouri.

At approximately 4:00 a.m. Wednesday morning, the suspect, 46-year-old John Francis of Galena, also known as “Polo,” was arrested outside of Carterville, MO. The arrest was made after a credible tip led authorities to conduct an extensive search in Jasper County, MO on Tuesday.

Francis was arrested for first degree murder in the April 26 shooting death of 29-year-old Kelly Glasgow at her residence at 207 W. Empire St. in Galena.

Assisting in the search for Francis were the U.S. Marshalls Service, the FBI, the Missouri Highway Patrol, the Ozark Drug Enforcement Taskforce, the Joplin Police Department, the Jasper County Sheriff’s Office, the Carterville Police Department, the Webb City Police Department, the Carthage Police Department, and the Oronogo Police Department.

This investigation is ongoing, and no further information will be released at this time.
